Background information:

~~Before becoming a farmer~~ As a farmer I have an international reputation in poultry husbandry and cookery, have developed new methods and techniques, and have been used as a consultant by federal and state experts and foreign governments. I began writing as a teenager, doing by-line features for the old Philadelphia Ledger Syndicate. Prior to US entry into World War II I specialized in national and international affairs and did a series of exposes, based upon original ingestigations, that were placed in ~~round up in~~ the Congressional Record and elicited praise from the White House, cabinet members, legislators, the Justice Dept., etc. I was an invesitgator and editor of a Senate Committee and in OSS worked in political analysis and intelligence.
